Please note the following:

- A conversion utility to convert Stock, Debtors and Creditors master files only.
- Transaction data will not be converted. Clients must refer back to their old IQ 2000 system for transaction information.
- Only qualified IQ Resellers who have completed the IQ Business training may install IQ Business.
- There are differences between IQ Business and IQ 2000 and as such this is a 'cross grade' and NOT an 'upgrade.' However there are many more benefits to the IQ Business system. It remains the responsibility of the reseller and the client to ensure that all the functionality previously required by the client in the IQ2000 system, is still available in the IQ Business system and that the client will accept any differences in accordance with the Consumer Protection Act.
